

Tom Navasero is presently Executive Chairman of Glocal Media Pte Ltd. Managing Director of HT Advanced Mobility and GoGreen Holdings Pte. Ltd. He was recently the Chief Executive Officer of M2B World Asia Pacific, a Pan Asia New Media company providing mobile and fixed IP media. Where he is enabling traditional broadcasters enter the “next generation TV” or NGTV market. He has over 25 years in the telecom and media industry. He was previously the Executive Chairman of the International Mobile Broadcasting Pte. Ltd. Based in Singapore, a Pan Asia Mobile TV initiative that was in partnership with Alcatel Mobile Broadcasting, SK Telecom, Bridge Mobile Alliance and Toshiba.. And, is Founder and Chairman of Glocal Media Networks Inc., with 8 networks around the world “glocalizing” Asian content for Asian expats around the world. Prior to starting up IMB he headed Intelsat’s business development in Asia. And, has worked closely with the hundreds of broadcasters, content owners and online companies in the Asian region.

He is a visiting lecturer at the Kenan Flager Business School at UNC and at the LogTech Defense Institute at Chapel Hill. He is a member of the Young Presidents Organization, Boy Scouts of America - executive director, a FAA licensed fixed and rotor wing pilot, American Red Cross First Responder, climbing instructor, licensed sailor and dive-master. He holds a bachelors and masters degree in Electrical and Communications Engineering from Cornell University and post-graduate studies from Stanford University. He is married to Dr. Jennifer Fernandez Litton and has four children. And, is an American with permanent residence in Singapore.